VOL. IV. NO. 121.

CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, MAY 22-23, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

IMP WINS ANOTHER GOOD RACE.

Lakeside's fifteen day spring meeting closed yesterday. There was a big racing card, perfect weather, a crowd of 4,000 and good racing for the finish.

Imp again showed her quality by carrying 117 pounds in the nine furlong handicap and winning all the way. She won as she chose. Imp is in the Brooklyn Handicap with only 98 pounds and the chances are that she will be shipped east to start in it. Charles Brossman, who trains her, is not in favor of sending the filly east. But it looks as if she could win the event.

Peter McCue, who ran five furlongs in 1:01 in his last race, was mixed up with a lot of speed in the fifth race. He was an even money favorite. After setting a terrific pace for three furlongs he was nailed by fast and game Dave Waldo and Donna Rita. Then the Illinois-bred colt stopped. Dave Waldo won. Donna Rita was running fastest at the finish.

Tom Ryan started Don't Skip Me in the second race and the ring made her an odds on favorite. The filly won quite handily.

The opening race went to Borden. Molo backed from 5 to 2½ to 1, won the third race in a lucky sort of way from Morte Fosse who was at 1 to 2.

Nivoce, the second choice at 8 to 5, easily landed the fourth event and Corporal Roller's filly, Elsie Bramble, scored in the closing event. All in all it was a good afternoon's racing.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The program book for the spring meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club is out, and it provides for fourteen days' racing, beginning on Saturday, May 28. During the meeting twenty-two stakes will be disposed of, and, judging from the number and quality of the entries in each event, the Brooklyn Jockey Club's spring meeting of 1898 promises to be one of the most brilliant in its history. The Expectation Stakes for 2-year-olds and the Brooklyn Handicap are the features of the opening day, and with such horses as Ornament, Ben Holladay, Dr. Catlett, Tillo, Typhoon II, Ben Eder, Plaudit and Traverser to draw on for the Brooklyn, a grand contest may be expected. The other fixtures are the Clover Stakes for 2-year-old fillies and the Broadway for 3-year-olds, to be decided May 30. The May Stakes for 3-year-olds is the only stake event for June 1, and the Parkway Handicap is the feature for June 2. On June 4 the Hudson Stakes for 2-year-olds and the Carlton for 3-year-olds will be decided, and the Bedford for 2-year-olds is the one fixture for June 6. The schedule for the rest of the meeting is as follows: June 7, the Patchogue Stakes for 3-year-olds and upward and the Gazelle Stakes for 3-year-old fillies; June 8, the Kensington Hurdle race; June 9, the Manhattan Stakes for 2-year-olds and the Falcon for 3-year-olds; June 11, the Great American for 2-year-olds, worth $12,500, and the Preakness for 3-year-olds; June 13, the Myrtle Stakes for 3-year-olds and upward; June 14, the Hanover Stakes for 2-year-olds, and the Greater New York Steeplechase; June 15, the Brookdale Handicap, and June 16, the Tremont Stakes for 2-year-olds, and the Brooklyn Derby for 3-year-olds, worth $10,000.—Turf, Field and Farm.

President Thomas H. Williams, Jr., said last Monday to a San Francisco Chronicle representative: "Our association will not get out a stake book until September, but it is our idea to give specials instead of some of the guaranteed stakes. It has taken a few seasons to find out what is best in these matters, and we intend to give fewer stake events, but will endeavor to make them richer and more attractive." President Williams is very well satisfied with the outcome of the present season, and holds the opinion that the class of horses was better than last year. At the conclusion of the meeting he will sail for Japan for a three or four months' trip.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ed Corrigan, the famous Chicago turfman, will race a big stable at the Oakley meeting. Secretary Letcher received a letter from Mr. Corrigan which states that he would bring a stable of seventeen horses to the Oakley track and asked that quarters for that number be reserved. In Mr. Corrigan's string will be his great 4-year-old, Geyser, that was the best horse on the coast the past season.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

At Morris Park Thursday Trainer Walden sent Bowling Brook and Mirthful a mile and a half, in preparation for the Belmont Stakes. The distance was done in 2:40. Up to the mile and a quarter Mirthful seemed quite as good as the Metropolitan Handicap winner, but at the end Bowling Brook's class began to show, and he won by a scant length. It was pronounced a neat bit of work.

Mr. Wyndham Walden says: "The Friar has filled out and furnished into a magnificent four-year-old, and is doing well at my farm in Maryland. He will shortly be put in training, and will probably be seen at the Saratoga meeting. Buddha is doing slow work, but will hardly be able to start in the Brooklyn Handicap, though he may be sent to the post later."

The winners of $1,000 or more at the Louisville meeting, just closed, were: T. H. Blackburn & Co., $1,079; J. C. Cahn, $2,850; P. Dunne, $2,425; T. P. Hayes, $1,682; May & Son, $1,233; J. E. Madden, $9,535; T. C. McDowell, 2,350; C. F. McLean, $1,475; Stanton & Tucker, $2,384; Schorr & Sons, $1,050; John Welch, $1,475; George H. Whitney, $1,225.

Artisan, ch. c, 2, by Spendthrift—Gold Coil, by The Miser, the property of J. E. Madden, died recently at Morris Park from a cold contracted on the trip from Louisville. He was considered an extra good colt, and Mr. Madden paid O. H. Chenault, his breeder, $2,500 for him last fall.

J. B. Haggin is in negotiation with T. B. Muir for the purchase of a sixty-acre tract of blue grass land which is adjacent to his Elmdorf stud farm. The deal involves about $65,000, and will likely be consummated.

After running second to Chimura at Louisville, Thursday, Tom Griffin's colt, Jolly Roger, was claimed by W. Donohue for $925. Half an hour later J. C. Cahn offered $1,300 for Jolly Roger, but the offer was declined.

Sam Hildreth has bought the good filly Toluca from W. M. Murry for the reported price of $2,500. She is apparently well worth it. She was bred by L. J. Rose and sold as a yearling for $150.

Joe Hill heads the Louisville list of winning jockeys, with 18 successful mounts. The others who rode as many as five winners were Beauchamp, 12; Dupee, 9; Martin, 8; Nutt, 7; Barrett, 5.

Schorr & Son have declared out all their entries for the June meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club, and this takes Meadowthorpe, Algol and Macy out of the Suburban.

Colonel Dan Burns says that both Altamex and Mount McGregor will be fit to race next season. The stable will ship twelve horses to Chicago this week.

"I HAVE STUDIED YOUR BOOK, 'HORSE Racing, or The Art of Making Money at the Race Track' and I don't see that there is any room for criticism, for I think that anyone who has played the races can't help but see that every word is true. I think there is more to be learned in 15 minutes reading it than any ordinary man could learn in as many years by simply following the races," writes an ardent admirer of this handsome and sensible little book, which is issued free to readers of DAILY RACING FORM on application to the publishers, A. F. Withe & Co., 720 Omaha Building, Chicago, Ill. Everyone interested in the noble sport should read it.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Morello—Cimeter.
Off at first break to a good start. It was a driving finish between five. They were spread all over the track. Borden was the best in the going. He was under punishment the last half mile. Julia Hazel was pumped out early and quit at the end. Treeby finished strong. Lon Jones was coming at the end. He is ready. Wild West showed some speed.

Winner—B. f, 4, by Al Farrow—Lady Lyon.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next five were driving. Don't Skip Me was well in hand all the way. Carrie F ran a cracking good race. It fitted in with her last performance too. Better ridden she would have given the winner an argument. Ella Penzance evidently needs a rest. She looked thin and drawn and weakened badly when pinched. Blue Jacket ran a good race considering the ride. Panout had a lot of speed. He has bad legs and pulled up a trifle lame. Branch was off in a tangled up position and could never get through. Anna W ran a fair race and John Conroy a good one.
Scratched—Duke of Little Grove, 87; Tom Toher, 87.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Pardee—Outstep.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second eased up when beaten; third and fourth driving. Molo was lucky and well ridden. Shepherd took a desperate chance to get through on the first turn. Had the field closed in on him he would have gone over the fence. Morte Fonse did all he could and was well ridden. He simply was not good enough to win as the race was run. Paskola was badly pocketed at the start. Hazelhatch went to pieces when the pinch came. It was Pitfall's kind of going and he ran a good race.
Scratched—Hosi, 95; Lucy Belle, 107; Santa Cruz, 109; Harry Shannon, 109; Morea, 92; Floronso, 102.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Dutch Organ—Josie.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second hand ridden. Third and fourth driving hard. Nivoce is at his best right now. He was well ridden. Gray picked the good going all the way. Jennie June ran below the mark. She was interfered with repeatedly. Carlotta C finished strong under a weak ride. Watch Trocha. He can win among his own kind. Nellie Baker ran much better than the figures show. She showed a sharp turn of speed between the half and three quarter posts. Vanessa was always outrun. Papa Harry was bumped about considerably.
Scratched—Duke of Haven, 104; Dave S, 109.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Sayre—Helianthus.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; the second and third were almost as hard driven. Peter McCue was pumped out going the first three furlongs. He has a lot of speed, but is a coward. Gray rode a nice race on Dave Waldo. He waited patiently to the stretch and then picked the good going. Donna Rita was not quite ready. Watch her. The race will put her on edge. She was running strongest at the finish. Billy Mason showed speed, but was short, and stopped in the stretch. Peter McCue swerved badly the last sixteenth.
Scratched—Alabaster, 98.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; drive for the place. Imp simply played with her field. She is cherry ripe, and could have won much further off. Moncreith is game. Caywood was at work on him all the last three furlongs. Banquo II weakened in the last seventy yards. He is good, and can be tabbed for early action. Arrezzo, outclassed, ran well for a mile.

Time, 25:1, 52:1, 1:06, 1:19.
Winner—B. f, 3, by Bramble—Elsie Gaylord.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second hand ridden; the next three were driving. Elsie Bramble was lucky in the race. She got away nicely and had a clear path. She likes weight off. Green Jacket made a strong bid about the eighth pole, but weakened at the end. Quaver was interfered with often and none too well handled. Spanish Princess is of no account. She has a lot of speed, but has not a bit of courage. GNOME was pumped out chasing the Princess. Chiquita II ran a fair race. Winslow came with his usual sensational rush at the end.
Scratched—Locust Blossom, 93.
Overweights—GNOME, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Captain Al—Lady Intruder.
Start good. The first six were all driving hard. Amasa beat the barrier and just lasted long enough to win. Saticoy, badly ridden, would have won in a few more strides. Was far the best at end. Mariner closed strong, too, after a slow beginning. Oahu has staled. Castake ran a dull, bad race. Negligence is a sprinter and a coward. Ashley had speed. Was much used and quit in stretch. She is bad. Towanda ran a good race.

Winner—B. g. by Rio Bravo—Why Not.
Start bad. Obsidian, E Come, Rey Hooker, The Fretter and Dunpraise were as good as left at the post and E Come fell soon after the start. Sir Urian was away well and just managed to scramble home first. Ojai has been much out of form for some time past. Magdalenes is best in heavy going.

Winner—Ch. c. by Brutus—Mistletoe.
Start fair. Won driving. There was keen contention for third place. Elmore should have won. He was best, off badly and met interference in moving up. He was far the best at the end. Mistletoe ran an honest race, was a good horse at end and favors a route. Prietos is good. He was not well managed. Tab him. Duke of York was used too much. Had a lot of speed and weakened in a natural way in the stretch. Magnus had some speed, too. Was short. The others were outclassed.

Winner—B. g. 4, by The Hook—Viente.
Start fair. Won in a gallop. Veloz seemed to be a real race horse too in striking contrast to his recent performances. Argentina ran an honest race. The Wheel seems to have staled from the effects of her last race. Fort Augustus was unlucky. San Marco was badly ridden and prefers a much shorter route. Some of the starters may not have tried too hard on account of races to come off next fall.
Scratched—Masero, 101; Tenacity, 101; Alvero, 101; Rebekah, 93.

*Coupled in betting.
Time, 25, 50, 1:03, 1:16, 1:42, 1:55.
Winner—Ch. h, 6, by St. Blaise—Flavina.
Start good. Hard drive between first three. Cromwell was luckiest and Mistral best. Bad riding beat the latter. Candelaria is a most uncertain colt. He was racing with great resolution at the finish. Buckwa, weighted as he was, had no chance with the ride he got. Was used far too much and stopped at the mile. Grady is good. Was poorly handled. Morellito was cut off on first and stretch turns and could not keep up in the stretch. Throw out La Goleta's race. She was cut off with Morellito on the first and stretch turns. She is good. Tab her.
Scratched—Los Prietos, 94; San Venado, 103.

Time, 24, 50, 1:02, 1:15.
Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Riley—Helter Skelter.
Start good. Won eased up. The winner outclassed her lot. Miss Rowena did her best. She is none too game and gave up quickly when challenged. Root is in good form and is best suited by a longer route. San Venado is not at his best just now. The others were not contenders at any stages though Sly was second on suzerance the first three furlongs.
Scratched—Kittie Blake, 95; P F, 104; Rosormonde, 105; Trappean, 119; Midas, 119; Peixotto, 121; San Mateo, 122.

Time, 1:49.
Winner—Blk. h, 5, by Jim Love—Zar.
Start good. Won handily. Drive for third place between three. Zarro was best. He wore down Metairie, who was used too much. St. Distaff closed strong and was unlucky as he made his moves on the turns from the half mile ground. Mahogany helped to settle Metairie and then stopped to nothing. The Dragon will not do. He has his moods and fancies in nearly every race. Rapido ran a dull, bad race. Was heavily played.
Scratched—Loch Ness, 150.
